

LITURGICAL CATECHESIS

Introduction:

We are in the midst of an identity crisis [in American Christian worship]... Perhaps there is confusion about our identity in Christ because we no longer know where it is that we see Jesus. Our self-centered culture persuades us that the only place to find Jesus is in our hearts, that is, in our emotions and feelings. But when Scripture speaks of the heart, it means the very core of the human being, the very place in us where Christ dwells. Our identity is in the person of Jesus. We see Jesus where He has promised to be for us and for our salvation—in His Word, in Baptism, and in the Lord's Supper. -Rev. Dr. Arthur A. Just Jr. Heaven on Earth: The Gifts of Christ in the Divine Service

The Biblical Case for the Liturgy:

God has a lot to say for how he is to be worshipped: (Exodus 20-40, Leviticus, much of Numbers & Deuteronomy)
(Exodus 26)

John 4:23-24, James 4:8 (Divine Service)

Lesson of Malachi:

“In Malachi's day the people of God were in a mess specifically because of their worship. They were living unfaithfully because they had forsaken faithfulness in their worship. While they were not actually running away from God, and were not worshipping idols (as they had in the past) they seemed to lack the energy to serve God wholeheartedly. They had become apathetic in their worship. They tried to live in neutral territory, neither serving God too enthusiastically, nor turning away from God too enthusiastically. In this they were self-deceived. They thought they were in a grey no-man's land, where they neither needed to respond wholeheartedly to God, nor refuse him. In fact they were in a vicious circle, a terrifying whirlpool, sinking further and further to destruction. Malachi, was writing calling the people to repentance with respect to the priesthood, which had become corrupt and worship, which had become routine and intermingled with secular practices. Malachi's predominant concern was with the purity and correct execution of the temple worship.” (What the Bible is All About: A Bible Handbook)

Practical Example (Youtube Video):

Four Reasons to Follow Tradition:

- 1) Tradition Mediates the Word to Us
- 2) Tradition Shows our Respect for the Past
- 3) Tradition Represents the “Greater Church”
- 4) Tradition Provides Perspective in Our Changing World (Hebrews 13:8)

Six Levels of Tradition - A Worship Hierarchy

- 1) Biblical Traditions
- 2) Catholic (universal) Traditions
- 3) Confessional or Lutheran Traditions
- 4) National, Synodical, or Denominational Traditions
- 5) Parochial, Local, Congregational or Pastoral Traditions
- 6) Personal Traditions

Why a worship Hierarchy?

This worship hierarchy is important because we can seek to move toward higher levels of tradition rather than remain at a lower level. As we recognize and use higher levels of tradition, we discover that we can include more of them in our worship experiences with beneficial results. We also find ourselves living more as the “Church catholic.” That is we find unity with the broader Christian Church on Earth. (True Unity)

For many worshipers, personal or congregational traditions are hardest to change. We “like” them, though there are logical and theological reasons why a biblical or catholic tradition may strengthen our relationship with Jesus Christ. Thus, in our postmodern society in which personal considerations (self-centered experience) seem to dominate, the higher worship traditions are often ignored or rejected rather than cherished and celebrated. As Lutheran Christians we have opportunities to expand and enhance our worship life by recognizing the hierarchy of traditions.

Too Catholic?

“Whenever the divine service once again follows the old Evangelical-Lutheran agendas (or church books), it seems that many raise a great cry that it is “Roman Catholic”; “Roman Catholic” when the pastor chants “The Lord be with you” and the congregation responds by chanting “and with thy spirit”; “Roman Catholic” when the pastor chants the collect and the blessing and the people respond with a chanted “Amen.” Even the simplest Christian can respond to this outcry: “Prove to me that this chanting is contrary to the Word of God, then I too will call it ‘Roman Catholic’ and have nothing more to do with it. However, you cannot prove this to me.” If you insist upon calling every element in the divine service “Romish” that has been used by the Roman Catholic Church, it must follow that the reading of the Epistle and Gospel is also “Romish.” Indeed, it is mischief to sing or preach in church, for the Roman Church has done this also. . . Those who cry out should remember that the Roman Catholic Church possesses every beautiful song of the old orthodox church. The chants and antiphons and responses were brought into the church long before the false teachings of Rome crept in. This Christian Church since the beginning, even in the Old Testament, has derived great joy from chanting. . . For more than 1700 years orthodox Christians have participated joyfully in the divine service. Should we, today, carry on by saying that such joyful participation is “Roman Catholic”? God forbid! Therefore, as we continue to hold and to restore our wonderful divine services in places where they have been forgotten, let us boldly confess that our worship forms do not tie us with the modern sects or with the church of Rome; rather, they join us to the one, holy Christian Church that is as old as the world and is built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets. “ — C. F. W. Walther, Der Lutheraner, vol. 9, No. 24 (July 19, 1853), p. 163

Augsburg Confession—Article XXIV: The Mass

Note: This article clearly demonstrates Lutheranism’s desire to continue—not to reject—the wholesome, beneficial, and historic worship practices of the Church. Lutheranism retained the traditional form of the Mass, that is, the service of Holy Communion. In many respects, the ceremonies and liturgy of the Lutheran Church were very similar to those of the Roman Church. The difference lay in Lutheranism’s rejection of false teaching concerning the Mass: that somehow, and without faith, simply by attending and observing the spectacle of the Mass, people could merit the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>1</sup> Our churches are falsely accused of abolishing the Mass. The Mass is held among us and celebrated with the highest reverence. <sup>2</sup> Nearly all the usual ceremonies are also preserved, except that the parts sung in Latin are interspersed here and there with German hymns. These have been added to teach the people. <sup>3</sup> For ceremonies are needed for this reason alone, that the uneducated be taught <what they need to know about Christ>. <sup>4</sup> Not only has Paul commanded that a language understood by the people be used in church (1 Corinthians 14:2, 9), but human law has also commanded it. <sup>5</sup> All those able to do so partake of the Sacrament together. This also increases the reverence and devotion of public worship. <sup>6</sup> No one is admitted to the Sacrament without first being examined. <sup>7</sup> The people are also advised about the dignity and use of the Sacrament, about how it brings great consolation to anxious consciences, so that they too may learn to believe God and to expect and ask from Him all that is good. <sup>8</sup> This worship pleases God [Colossians 1:9–10]. Such use of the Sacrament nourishes true devotion toward God. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, it does not appear that the Mass is more devoutly celebrated among our adversaries than among us.
