Call Extended

On October 20, Immanuel and St. Paul's extended a Divine Call to Rev. David Shadday to serve as our Pastor. Please keep Pastor Shadday in your prayers as he considers our Call.

Today we celebrate the Reformation.

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther began profound changes to the church with his posting of 95 theses. He led the church back to the truth of God's Word. He also translated the Bible into the language of his people (German). He was a prolific writer, including the Small and Large Catechisms. Luther also wrote numerous hymns as a way of teaching the faith. All of the hymns in today's service were written by Luther.

Celebrating Jesus

Today St. Paul's Sunday School will be celebrating Jesus as the true light of the world.
